GENERAL ADMINISTRATION (PU.A) DEPARTMENT

G.O.Rt.No. 2432 dated:31-10-2017

-:oOo:-

The Government has been emphasizing on simplification of the procedures andrationalisation of the departments and increased use of information technology to make governance more efficient, effective, simple and user-friendly. Therefore, measures should be taken to improve the administrative efficiency by enhancing coordination and cooperation among different departments and their programmes. Synergies could be created among programmes in such areas as communication and awareness activities, community outreach, membership management, delivery of benefits, data collection, monitoring and evaluation. In view of the computerisation of departments, there is need to rationalise and optimise the Departments without affecting the efficiency of the departments.

2. The Government have therefore, grouped all the existing 31 Departments of Secretariat into seven (7) Sectors as mentioned in the Annexure and hereby assign each sector to a Senior Secretary to study the rationalisation and optimisation issues within the departments, inter departments in the sector as follows:

1. Agricultural Sector - Sri B.Rajasekhar, IAS
2. Industry Sector - Sri Neerabh Kumar Prasad, IAS
3. Infrastructure Sector - Sri Ajay Jain, IAS
4. Services Sector - Sri L.V.Subrahmanyam, IAS
5. Welfare Sector - Sri R.P.Sisodia, IAS
6. Local Bodies Sector - Sri K.S.Jawahar Reddy, IAS (PR & RD)
   Sri KarikalValaven, IAS (MA & UD)
7. Regulatory & Advisory Sector - Sri Manmohan Singh, IAS

3. The Secretaries of the Secretariat Department shall look into their respective Department's working, including the Corporations and submit proposals with recommendations for rationalisation and optimisation of staff requirements to the Sector in-charge Secretaries by 10th November, 2017.

4. The Secretaries to whom the Sector is assigned, shall study optimal use of existing HoDs and Corporations across departments with similar objectives/duplication of work and submit a report on their study of the Sector to the Chief Secretary by 20th November, 2017.

5. The proposals finalized by the Secretaries and vetted by the Sector in Charge Secretaries shall be brought to a final shape by a State Level Committee headed by the Chief Secretary and consisting of the sector Secretaries, Secretaries of General Administration, Law and Finance Departments by 30th November, 2017.
